

Anna Margaret Twyman

August 6, 1943 - July 16, 2023

We honor the life of Anna Margaret Twyman, who graced this world on August 6th, 1943 born to her beloved parents Lewis and Anna Bell Edwards. Anna graduated class of 1962 from George Washington Carver. Later in life, on January 29, 1972, she joined hands in matrimony with John Lee Twyman II in a joyous ceremony held in Terrell, Texas.

During her early years, Anna contributed her time and talents to the renowned Mead company, dedicating many years of her professional life in their service. Her commitment and dedication were a testament to her strong work ethic, leaving a lasting impact on all who had the privilege of working alongside her.

As the sun set on July 16th, 2023, Anna Twyman departed this earthly existence, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and kindness. Her memory will forever linger in the hearts of her cherished family and friends, who were touched by her unwavering warmth and compassion.

Anna Twyman's memory will be cherished by her late husband, John Twyman, as well as her surviving siblings Robert Edwards and Doris Lane. She is also lovingly remembered by her late son Donald Edwards and siblings, Frank Edwards and Sharon Edwards. Anna leaves behind her children, John Twyman III and Raheem Twyman, along with seven grandchildren, one great-grandchild, numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
