

Asencion Gonzales

August 15, 1947 - October 30, 2022

Asencion Gonzales was born August 15, 1947 in New Braunfels, Tx. After moving to Portales, New Mexico during his teenage years he met the love of his life, his wife Maria Cruz of 56 years. They married August 24th 1966 in Farwell, Tx. A short 30 days later, he was drafted into the army where he was stationed in Fort Bliss for basic training. He was then shipped to Vietnam in 1967 where he would serve this great country in combat. He returned home in 1968 after being awarded two purple hearts. In 1989, he moved his family to Dallas, Tx where he & his wife would raise their 5 sons and only daughter. He was a hardworking husband and father who worked as a bricklayer from 1970 to 2004.

After retiring, Ascension enjoyed taking trips to the casinos, listening to his oldies while reminiscing with his kids about the good ol' days. Collecting antiques & coins were also among a few of his favorite hobbies. His all time favorite movie was Full Metal Jacket. He loved western movies and watched Gun Smoke daily.
