“ Bob, I will always cherish our long talks about life lessons. Thank you for being my father in law for taking me in as a teen and loving me unconditionally. Thank you for everything you taught me about God, life, cars and people especially men. I know putting up with me and the troubles of this world, you got your crown of life. I love you and you are always in my heart. Rest now in peace. Singing Glory Hallelujah! You are home with JESUS!

“ Papa,

I miss you so much. I don't have the words to describe how much I miss you. This has been such a hard week... but Koot is being really strong. I know that your spirit is in Heaven rejoicing and you're probably shaking your leg singing and dancing with the Angels.

I love you.

“ Papa life won't be the same without you here. Seems like just yesterday you were teaching me to drive, how to take care of my car, dancing and shaking a leg. I can still hear you singing in the shower. Thank you for showing me what a hard working man is. I will forever hold you in my heart. Love Pumpum
