

Cherrie Lynn Jones

December 24, 1950 - July 13, 2020

Cherrie Lynn (Woodard) Jones was born on December 24, 1950 to the parentage of Howard Woodard and Elmarine Anders. She attended school in San Augustine Texas. She was one of the first African American to graduate after segregation from San Augustine High in 1968.

Cherrie married Tony Jones on September 22, 1969 in San Augustine Texas, to this union 3 boys were born.

Cherrie accepted Christ at an early age. She became a member of the Pleasant Zion Missionary Baptist church in 1991, where she was a member until her health failed. Cherrie knew the Lord, she was a devoted Christian throughout her life.

Cherrie was a cheerleader coach for the Pleasant Grove Longhorns for many years, where she was a mentor to a lot of young ladies throughout the years. She took great pride in influencing the girls she mentored, not only about how to cheer but also about life.

Cherrie was employed at Mostex from 1980 to 1988, then Little Fuse from 1990 to 2009 where she retired.

Cherrie had a big loving heart. She was a God fearing, loving, caring, giving and extremely generous. She leaned heavily on her Christian values and beliefs, and loved spoiling her grandkids Stank Poo, Ty, Lil Tony, Missy Poo, and Money Poo. She enjoyed FAMILY and long, long, long...loving conversations.

If you know Mrs Jones, you know she is home with the Lord happy, looking down on us smiling with that affectious grin.

Don't cry for me I'm home

Looking at our Heavenly Father on the throne

No more suffering, no more pain

My Golden Wings I have gained
