“ We must remember that her life was a sermon. And that her life leaves us memories too beautiful to forget. Grief never ends but it changes. It's a passage not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness, Nor a lack of faith. Grief is the price of love John and Ella Johnson

“ She would always make her special 7-Up poundcake everytime we would come to Texas. It was my mother Toni William's Lettich, favorite cake. One year she taught me how to make it with the special flour. Such a treasured memory! I will love and miss my middle names namesake Aunt Liz. I love her dearly and will always remember her warm smile and laugh. ❤️❤️❤️
