Fatima Yoruba Lampkin was born on July 14, 1968 in Fort Worth, Texas to the proud parents of Mr. Hamin Omar and Miriam Adams.

Fatima attended Polytechnic High School, Class of '86. She later went on to receive her LVN from Dallas Nursing Institute. She was employed at Baylor Family Medical Center at Rockwall where she served diligently with Dr. David Lensch for 23 years and cared for and touched the lives of her many patients.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Donald Lee Laury and Kenneth Hunter, and her sisters Marsha Hunter and Gloria Mason.

Hunter-Jones, Marilyn Hunter, and Janet Farmer; her brothers Eric Omar, Malik Najee, Tony Adams, Oscar Adams, Terry Adams, Elvis Hunter and Rickey Hunter; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loved ones, and special friends.

“ Fatima was the nurse at my parents' doctor's office and they loved her dearly. She always cut up with my step-dad, teasing each other back and forth. And because they discovered that her kids had gone to school with my kids, they had that in common to chat about. As I began going to the doctor with them, I always loved getting the chance to visit with her. She was so sweet to them but didn't hold back when they needed a little bossing around too. She will definitely be missed! Blessings to you all. - Laura Redmon

“ We met over 20 years ago with Life Planning Health Services. Our kids have grown up and went to school together. We’ve shared a lot of memories, past hurts, and long talks. I still can’t believe we’re at this moment in time, that your actually gone. I pray for your eternal peace and know that everything will be alright. Until we meet again, Love Allette
