*To: The Family of the Late Brother Franklin
Lee Newborn*

Our hearts are heavy due to the transition of our beloved Cousin Franklin Lee Newborn. We remember Franklin in such special ways and our friendship span the years. We are so grateful that he touched our lives in so many ways by sharing so much love, wisdom, and knowledge. However, we must be ever mindful that God does not bring us to anything that he will not carry us through.

With Much Love,

Albert and Gracie Neal

I have known the Newborn, Garland and Perry families most of my life. I always was close to Frank's uncles (railroad men). They spoke with much wisdom. Frank was raised in a Christian setting and environment. I once shared with Mrs. Flowers how much clean fun we used to have when we visited each other. We hurt with you. Our loss is Heaven's gain. But, we have a living hope to reunite with departed saints. Some day we will be reunited, again. Praying for your faith to sustain and keep you strong.
