“Private Family Ceremony Will Be Held At A Later Date”

Helen Brown departed this life on January 18, 2021 while hospitalized. She was born August 29, 1940 to the late Jimmy Brown Sr. and Mattie Mae Brown, in Rockwall, Texas. She was the 8th of 9 Children and the last living. Her brothers and sisters, Jim Brown JR, of Dallas, Texas, Albert Leon Brown of Rockwall, Texas, Gussie Mae Jacobs of Rockwall, Texas, Troshel (Tuna) Brown of Rockwall, Texas, Sammie Brown of Rockwall, Texas Napoleon Brown of Rockwall, Texas and J.T. Brown SR of Dallas, Texas, all preceded her in death.

Helen was a faithful member for over sixty year at Phagan Addition Church of God in Christ , before serving fifteen-years at Chosen Generation Church of God in Christ. She graduated from Rockwall High School and left a legacy that is still standing to this day. She holds the basketball scoring record. Ms. Brown taught her children to give and help people through her actions and truly led by example. She would give the dress off her back to anyone she believed was in need.

Helen Brown became head usher and gave everything she had, to the position. She brought honor and dignity to the usher board. Everyone in the family, including her children remembered waking up every Saturday and Sunday morning to the sounds of Shirley Caesar, Mahalia Jackson or Dorothy Norwood while cleaning, cooking, and doing chores. She was the type of person who always managed to provide for her family and friends and always ensured that her children had the best Christmases ever.

She was affectionately known in her latter years as Mother Brown. She spent the last few years at Windsor Retirement home and touched many lives there with her contagious smile and spirit that always reflected Jesus Christ. She loved her chocolate candy, especially, Three Musketeers and Hersey Bars. Ms. Brown always enjoyed visits from her children and would sit for hours by the window talking about fishing and football. She loved the Dallas Cowboys. Helen Brown was a devoted Christian until the day she passed on to glory.

She leaves to two children, Michael Dwayne Brown of Rockwall, Texas and Kathy Lynette Brown of Garland, Texas. Two grandchildren, Undret Bynum of Rowlett, Texas and Jaderian Brown of Arlington, Texas, along with one grate grandchild, Amiaya Bynum. 2 nieces, Carmen D. Brown, and Kim Dean and (Husband Nathan Dean), Two Nephews, Anthony Charles Brown of Dallas, Texas, and J.T. Brown Jr of Dallas, Texas and a host of grate nieces and nephews.
