

Herbert Wayne Traylor Jr.

November 12, 1973 - April 20, 2020

Herbert Wayne Traylor, Jr., know as “Phillip” to his family, was born on November 12, 1973 in Dallas, TX to Annie Traylor of Linden, TX and Herbert Wayne Traylor, Sr. of Naples, TX. Phillip attended school in the Richardson ISD. He graduated from Lake Highlands High School in 1993. Phillip was a jack of all trades, however he loved driving trucks.

Phillip started his career as a truck driver and traveled all across the United States. He kept everyone entertained by his many live videos he would share with family and friends. Phillip was known for making jokes, speaking his mind, and making everyone laugh.

Phillip had a smile that would brighten up a room. Phillip loved adventure, traveling, spending time with his boys, family, and friends. He had one of the most loving and caring hearts you could ever meet. He was the true life of the party.

Herbert (Phillip) Wayne Traylor, Jr. is survived by his sons, Jeremy Wayne Traylor (Ana Traylor), Brandon Lee Traylor, mother, Annie Traylor, sisters, Angie Traylor, Michelle Traylor, brother, Kevin Mc Bath, grandchildren, Tamara Traylor, Nathan Traylor, Richard Traylor, niece, Skyla Traylor, nephew, Tyler Traylor, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends, whom loved him dearly.
