“ My deepest condolences to you. I went to St Anthony with you and Kim and I was a grade ahead of her. We also worked together at Manpower in the payroll department, we had great times there. Kim had a huge heart and she will be missed. I am praying for you

“ To the family of Kimberly A. Gillyard, Please accept our deepest sympathy. We pray God's comfort for you at this time. We loved Kimberly and she was a joy to be around. We thanked God for her gift of language and diction as she would read announcements and welcome worshippers to the First Baptist Church of Hamilton Park. We delighted in serving with her in honoring our military veterans each year. Thank God for her life and legacy. We pray Isaiah 26:3 for you family. Our heartfelt condolence, Larry and Jeri Hamilton
