“ Please accept our condolence and deep love we have for Kyley and family. We are very sorry we couldn't be there to stand with you during this difficult, unimaginable time. We will hold you up in prayer and cherish him forever in our hearts. I know my mom, Melanie McDavid, Kyley's first cousin, has many childhood memories, she will hold in her heart forever. Please know that we sent flowers to the church for the day of, in our absence. Picture below was taken in August 2007, during one of our visits to TX. We love you so much and appreciate your presence in our lives. Love the Cali fam, Mel, Nia and family.

“ Kyley, we shared texts just a few days before we lost you! You had driven all the way down to visit our parents graves, in Temple. That display of love and devotion touched me and my siblings so deeply that I had to let you know. You said it was to honor their legacy in the Hawkins Family. But, that act also honored your parents, as well. You were raised well! Everyone speaks of the loving guidance you gave your children. You were a very "present" dad. You were devoted and loyal to your extended family; a good and Godly man. You will be greatly missed. But, heaven rejoices! You have seen the Father face to face! Rest well until we meet again. To God be the glory!
