

Ladell Fitzgerald Pace

June 19, 1964 - April 14, 2022

Ladell Fitzgerald Pace, affectionately known as “Mixxx D” was born June 19, 1964 to the parents of Raymond Roberson and Elizabeth Ann Butcher in Dallas, TX. He received his formal education within the Dallas Independent School District graduating in 1982 from L.G. Pinkston High School.

His love for music led him to become a music producer and he often linked up with his brother from another mother, Norris High (High-C) to record and make music together and he’s worked with many artists across the metroplex.

Ladell is preceded in death by his mother, Elizabeth Ann Butcher. But he leaves to cherish his precious memories: Father, Raymond Roberson; His son, Lamarcus Robinson (Sedricka); daughter Ashlee Walker (Leneric); Two grandsons and two granddaughters; Quinton, Braylon, Mya and Chanell; one brother, Patrick Pace Sr; three sisters: Carlous Pace Lewis, Nikeshia Roberson, and Iman Roberson. In addition to his siblings, he left his undeniable impact on his three nephews; James Bowens Pace, Patrick Pace Jr., Christopher Pace and his three nieces/daughters: Monique Bowens Pace (John), Shanequia Pace and Chrystal Pace Tucker (Christopher) and his special sister-in-love and best friend, Shyrolon Pace Wilson (Shirl Pace) along with 12 great nieces and nephews.
