Leola's Life Journey

Leola was born November 13, 1923, in Caldwell, TX to the parentage of the late Willie Lee Green and Mary Lee Green she was the youngest of two siblings. On November 7, 2022, God called her home with her children by her side.

Leola left home at an early age relocating to Dallas, TX where she resided with one of her great aunts. There she worked faithfully at the beginning at Handley's Knox Street Cleaners and later at Center Food in the Dallas Market district where she retired from the Bakery Department. Baking, sewing, and serving the Lord was her life's passion. After retirement, she received her certification in Home Child Care. This was also a labor of love. During those childcare years, Leola was diagnosed with breast cancer. Through her faith in God, she was a survivor.

Leola accepted Christ as her savior at an early age. Growing up in church was a way of life for her. In the early 1960's she was witnessed to by the late Elder L. B. Matthews and his wife. She was baptized and received the holy ghost under the ministry of the late Elder Isaac Parker. She served faithfully under the pastorate of Elder G. W. Speight, Evangelist Zenora Thomas, Elder Carl Bonds, Elder Luther Lee, and Suffragan Bishop Leon Parker at Zion Apostolic Temple. Her service of love included Church Superintendent, Missionary President, Sunday School Teacher, Pastors Aide, Mother's Board, and her deep passion for serving the food service area (the church kitchen).

Her greatest joy was her family. Her natural family and her spiritual family. She was a warm, loving, and giving person. She was a faithful servant until her health began to decline. We will always remember her firm handshake and her soft words, "It's got to be in your heart." We will miss "Mother Page". Leola is preceded in death by two husbands Willie Lee Scott and Daniel Page, granddaughter Sabrina Noelle Bonds, brother Willie "Sam" Green, daughter-in-law Margie Scott, son Willie Scott, Jr., and great-grandson Lawrence Emanuel, III.

Leola leaves to cherish her memory, three children Gloria Emanuel (Lawrence), Linda Etheridge (Robert), and Wayne Scott; grandchildren Lawrence Emanuel (Deandra), Kevin Emanuel (Jami), Quinn Bonds, Ashley Bonds, Wayne Scott, and Shannon Bonds; great-grandchildren Jaylen Emanuel, Christian Emanuel, Francesca Pickney, Michaela Brock, Z'kharyah Scott, Lauryn Marshall, Adrian Pickney, Quinton Hawkins, Logan Marshall, Londyn Marshall, Kyla Emanuel, and Kase Emanuel and lifelong friend Mae Johnson and a host of family, friends and the Zion Apostolic Temple church family.
