“ My Fondest memory of Mo. Parker is that I was a church function and I didn't know her at the time and I was sitting next to her and she had such a beautiful spirit that made me feel at peace sitting next to her. There were these kids running back and forth over her and she didn't seem to mind, but I did. I asked the kids to stop running over her and they even spilled milk on her dress and I was disturbed by this. Mo. Parker said, "Its okay baby, a little soap and water will take care of it." The next time I saw her was at Zion Apostolic Temple.. as my church Mother! I was so surprised to see her when I became a member there. She put a whole new meaning of "Entertaining Angels Unaware." She will truly be missed and she was an example of what a Godly Woman look and act like.

Take your rest and one day we will meet again.

*Love and miss your dearly,
Deaconess Lisa Cooke*
