“ I am devastated to learn of Randy's passing. We both graduated TCI in '78 and I moved to San Jose that year. I invited him to come and stay with my family the following year. We shared a very close and wonderful time together. Randy' was a true friend and funny companion. He is truly missed.

“ I knew Raymond as Randy. He and his wife Melody were the sweetest gentle people. It's hard to believe they are gone, as my memories keep saying they were just here. Randy was always ready to volunteer for projects of the Bahai Faith. They are missed. We were lucky to have known them.

“ Randy was one funniest and most sincere men I have ever known. It was always a pleasure to work along his side. I will always remember his assortment of stories when he was growing up. He always had us laughing with his stories with the way he told them.

“ My husband and I had the honor of working with Randy at Raytheon. He was an inspiration to anyone to never give up. I enjoyed hearing his stories and he was just a fun person to be around. He was a really good friend. He will be greatly missed by so many.
