“ For my dad...

Did you ever know that you were patient, thoughtful?

Did you ever know that you were everything that I need?

Everyone needs to have that someone to listen.

Did you ever know that you were awfully inviting?

Did you ever know that you were everything I hoped to be?

Everyone needs to have that someone to lean on, cry with in time of need.

Did you know that you were this to me?

Did you ever know that you were my hero?

You have always been and always will...be.

“ Richard was a fine man! He always took a special interest in our young son and would give him mints and a hug every time he saw him at church. We are sad that he is no longer with us, but rejoice that he is home with the Lord he loved. Sending love to his family - the DeShazos

“ For my father...

It took an lot to sit and think of what words to tell this world what he meant to me or, how much I loved him.

I thought of what he'd tell those who knew him best.

To console them even bring them peace at time. And this came to mind....

I'm grateful for it...all.

The times of victory and when I fall. He's been so good to me down through the years.

All that I am is because of what he's brought me through.

I can't thank him enough for the ways he's made time and time again.

Opening doors that I'd thought were closed.

I cannot express the graditude that I feel for you, Jesus.

Thank you for...my life.

Thank you for...my health.

Thank you for...my family.

Thank you for...it all.

I love you, dad. ❤️

God bless and keep you Christopher. Your Dad was my dear friend. We met together via Zoom once each week; and we exchanged phone calls several more times weekly. Talked mostly about Jesus's Love for us and our love for Him and our fellow man. All walks. Rich loved them all and he would stop and visit and help folks out. And son, I've gotta tell you, even when he knew folks were taking advantage of him. To me my brother Rich was just a prime example of how knowing Jesus could transform a person's life. Some of your pop's actions literally blew me away. I'll never forget Richard Lee and I sure hope we meet again some day. Bless you and your family. Bill Byrum

Thank you, Mr. Byrum. For the heartfelt post on the impression my dear father left on you. After reading your's I'm so filled with overwhelming joy. Just knowing that my dad shared the same mindset..spirit and heart. To uplift others and give from the heart. I pray that the lord continues to bless and keep you and yours forevermore, Mr. Bynum. Amen. ❤️🙏

“Anyone whom was blessed to cross paths with my dear father. Knows one thing for certain and one thing for sure. He loved and knew the lord for himself. And also wanted for others to know him for themselves personally. I thank the lord and the heavens' above for his time with us. His influence and encouragement along with others in my life helped mold the man given to this world. I'm proud to be able to have you as my father. Job well done, dad. This isn't an goodbye..but, i'll see you later.

I can't help but, shed an tear. But there's an praise stirred up in my heart and I'll take solace in the fact that you've won the battle.

Rest In Power. ❤️🙏

I was in extreme unbelief when I saw Richard's picture today. I had been trying to reach him and thought it out of character for him to ignore my calls, so I finally gave in and decided to look for him elsewhere. Family & Friends: Please be comforted with God's peace during this time of coming to grips with Richard 's absence. We were very good friends and birthday buddies. I missed him before I realized his reason for not responding to me, but I'll miss him even more knowing my friend is gone. To be absent in the world is to be present with the Lord. Thank God for that promise. If there is something you need or want you are welcome to reach out to me. If anyone has an extra obituary you don't mind parting with, please mail it to me. Thank you sincerely, D. Lindsey I am also on Facebook.

“ Richard was involved with our men's group for years . He always loved to hug my boys when we came to church. He was very active in prayer and love help at functions at the church. We would talk almost every day and it always ended with prayer. He was one of my good friends I will miss him dearly but I am confident he is with the Father he sincerely placed his life with Jesus. I love him and will keep him in my heart. Glenn Mcgowen

“ There's a praise on the inside of my heart and soul. For the life and works of my dear father. Can't help but, be overcome with joy. With an tear streaming down giving endless praise to our god. Cause he has victory over this world and gained his wings. Also everlasting life amongst the countless loved ones whom passed before him. I wholeheartedly pray knees bowed that he watches over myself and the entire family. Until we meet again beyond the world. I'll love you until the moment I join...you in glory. ❤️🙏
