

Sharon Ann Conant Reed-Wells

July 24, 1955 - June 6, 2020

A native of Monroe, Louisiana, Sharon Ann Conant Reed-Wells passed away on June 6, 2020, at the age of 64 years.

Her parents were Alma Jean Reed and Joseph Scott Conant. Her siblings are Melba Gray and James Patrick Conant Sr. In her formative years, Sharon attended Little Flower Academy Catholic School. The family relocated to Dallas, Texas in 1969; where she graduated from Bryan Adams High School in 1973. After graduation, she relocated to Washington D.C. to be with her extended family. There she met and married Gerald Bernard Wells then produced their only child Dannielle Nicole Wells. Later Sharon returned to Dallas, Texas where she received a degree in Music from El Centro College, and in 1987 she received a Bachelor's Degree in Banking and Finance with a Minor in Business Administration from Bishop College. A couple of years after receiving her degree, she became a Teacher. During her teaching career, she taught 6-12 graders, Language Arts and English, and retired in 2005.

She became a member of St. Elizabeth of Hungary Catholic Church in the mid-1990s and volunteered with Dallas Area Interfaith Group. Sharon was also very active with Band Boosters at Bishop Dunne Catholic High School.

Sharon believed learning was always continuous because of the constant change in technology and techniques. She will be deeply missed by her family and the lives she has influenced over the years.
