“ Aunt Sharon, remember that time we snuck thru your bookshelf and found your hidden money?! We made it rain and had our own music video. You came home and beat our ass lol too many memories from people's court to them cans of spaghetti and meatballs to the time u burnt that floor up with the pot of beans lol. All love auntie, miss your laugh, dancing, and your energy. Hug Phillip, uncle D, pawpaw, and my grandma for me. See you on the other side.

“ I am the oldest of 6 children Sharon was my sister, unfortunately I couldn't attend the service because I had a heart attack . My fondest memories are of us growing up in cartersville Texas. we would walk barefoot in the summer ,we had do much fun picking berries peaches,and plums. We had squabbles but we quickly fogot and moved on to something else. There are so many memories that I will cherish. Until we meet again Mama Daddy and Sharon. take care of my grandson AJ. God has something more for me to do I don't know what .bit where he send me. I will follow

“ Grandma was the light in the room! My last time visiting her was beautiful because she was holding her great granddaughter, cracking up watching her great grandson chase their little puppy, and we were reminiscing about how drunk she got one year with us on New Years. My heart is so broken, but I love her entirely and she will never ever be forgotten. Rest in paradise beautiful angel❤️

“ On the behalf of your Mom first cousins the (Thompson's Clan) we send our love and sympathy. We know things are cloudy and it's so hard to see ya way and you don't think you can make it but we like to encourage you all to keep the faith and keep your hands in God's hand and He will brighten your day. Love you all
