

Viviano Alvarado

November 23, 1965 - September 24, 2020

Viviano “Bob Gonzalez” Alvarado, was born on November 23, 1965 at Parkland Hospital in Dallas, Texas to parents Relles H. Alvarado and Julia Coronado Alvarado. On September 24, 2020, se fue a la Pasta Grande because his family and God called him home.

Those proceeding him in death were his parent’s, Relles and Julia Alvarado, brother, Danny Alvarado, sisters, Betty Alvarado, Isabelle Alvarado, Rosie Sandoval, Modesta Alvarado, and nephew, Andrew Salazar.

Bob was always looking to make everyone laugh. His jokes were always something you could count on to get a good laugh in to help cheer you up or to just have some good comedy in your day. He was always someone to call for help if you needed it, whether it was just to talk through situations or pick you up and take you where you needed to be, he was just a call away. Any day at 3pm you could find him watching his favorite show Jerry Springer, and if he were out of the house before then, he had to make sure he was home to start his show, or during Football season watching your Dallas Cowboys play, with some of his phrases like “tighten it up boys, tighten it up” or “la cerca, la cerca, the fence, the fence”. He didn’t need much to make him happy either, mostly the company of his family or a few beers with his brothers and sisters or nieces and nephews. Most of all though, were hugs from his son Angel saying “I love you Dad”.

Bob is survived in life by his son, Angel Michael Alvarado, brothers, Reyes Alvarado, Jr, of Midland, Albert Coronado, of Amarillo, Johnny, Jimmy, Peter, Steven, all of Dallas, sisters, Sally Maldonado, Anastasia Alvarado, Maria Tonche, Connie Alvarado, Sylvia Alvarado, all of Dallas, and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Today we celebrate the life of an Incredible Individual, Father, Brother, and Uncle. Bob is going home and takes most of our laughs with him and a part of our hearts. He will be greatly missed, remembered and loved, until we meet again. Choke on that slap nuts.
